INDIAN IMPORT DUTIES.

("RANGOON TIMES " CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, March 1st. At to-day's Legislative Council Mr. Westland atroduced a Bill imposing a five per cent import duty on the following: coffee, fruits, vegetables, provisions, oil-man's stores, groceries, spices, sugar, tea, chemical products and preparations of drugs, medicines and narcotics, including tobacco, but excluding quinine, which is free; dyeing and tanning materials and manufactures of metals, except machinery and steel railway materials, which are free, but including silver bullion, metals and coin other than current coin of the Government of India; oils except spermaceti which is free; apparel including haberdashery, millinery, uniforms and accourrements, except uniforms or accontrements imported by a public servant for personal use which are free; brushes, building and engineering materials, cabinet ware, furniture, candles, canes and rattans, except common bamboos which are free; articles made of cane or rattau, basket work, carriages and component parts thereof, except railway. carriages and trucks, which are free; Chinese and Japanese ware, lacquered wate, clocks, watches, time keepers, coir, articles made of coir, coral, cordage and rope made of vegetable fibre, cork, articles made of cork, easthenware, china, China clay, porcelain, feathers, fireworks, flax, articles made of flax, glass, glassware, beads, false pearls, false corals, gums, gum resins, articles made of gum or gum resin, hemp, articles made of hemp, hides, skin, except raw or salted hides and skins, which are free; musical, drawing, measuring optical, photographic, surveying and surgical instruments and apparatus, materials for photography, surgical appliances, lyoxy, and ivory ware, jewellery, except unset precious stones and pearls, which are free ; jute, articles made from ute, except gunny bags which are free; leather, articles made of leather including boots, shoes, harness, saddlery but excluding belting for driving machinery which is free; marine and naval stores, matches, mats, matting, oil and floor cloth, paints, colours, painters' materials, compositions for application to leather and metals, wall paper, perfumery, piece goods, except cotton piece goods which are free, pipes and implements used in consumption of tobacco, pitch, tar, dammar, seeds, shells, cowries, silk, articles made of silk, soap, stationery, stone marble, tallow, grease, tollet requisities toys and requisites for games, umbrellas. including paper kettisals, wax, wood, timber, woollen goods. The Bill maintains existing import duties but raises only on petroleum by six ples; raises duty on wines containing more than 45 per cent, of proof (spirit) to six rupees per gallon, and makes the duty recently imposed on salted fish in Burma leviable throughout British India. No change is made in export duties or coasting trade, except in sale and oplum. Spirit remains free as at present. Existing clause maintained as to effect of new duties on current contracts.

The Bill was referred to a select committee consisting of Sir Alexander Miller, Sir Charles Pritchard, Honourables Clogstonn, Fasalbhai, Vishram, P. Mehts, Playfair, and Westland with instructions to report by the roth instant The Clause above mentioned, as to the effect on contracts, is that the seller may add the amount of the duty to the price where a contract was made before the imposition of the duty.

Mr. Westland explained in his speech that this legislation is due entirely to the fall in the rupes. It is expected the deficit on the Budget will be 31 crores. The new duties ere expected to produce Rx. fourteen hundred thousand.

The Bill will probably be passed on the Sth of March, to which date the Council adjurned.

IT is reported that there is good reason to believe that a body of men has been recraited between Winnipeg and Victoria to enter the service of Oueen-Liliuokalani, of Hawaii. The plan of the Queen's agents who are enrolling the men is to send the force in detached parties to San Francisco so as to avoid the Neutrality Law, or sa passengers on the sealing floot passing Hawaii en route to the Japan scaling grounds.

A CONGRE-HAWKER went on board the steamer Follow this morning on business bent, and he would doubtless have profited by the sales of his savoury potion had he been able to make a nice distinction between the terms means and funns. But he didn't, and being found by Mahomet Sally, a quartermaster employed on the Folden, with 12 bs, of cotton yern in his sice, bucket as he was going over the gangway, he not only lost all his "chow-chow." but his liberty as well for six galendar months.

Go ahead, Jock I you are still kindly semembered by your numerous old friends and comrades in played-out Hongkong.

ACCORDING to the Hyogo News it seems certain that the Mill-owners and the Nippon Yusen Kalsha regard the 12 rupees per ton as a fair and abiding rate. The only inconstant quantity will be the number of ships on the line, and demand is to be the sole regulator of this. One authority suggests that no matter what the P. & O. may do in the future the Company can never again be favoured with Japanese patronage, but that the Cotton Union and the Yusen Kaisha will go hand in hand for ever.

ACCORDING to an estimate made recently, the number of officials at Peking connected with the Birthday celebrations, from the President of the Executive Board, the Prince of Li, down to the petty officer of the 8th rank, amount to not less than 1,203. A leading anarchist, François Galtineau, has been arrested in London at the request of the French Executive. He is alleged to be an associate of Bourdin's.

Great precautions are being taken all over the Continent against the possibilities of anarchist outrages. At Vienna torpedo nettings have been erected round the Reichstag in order to prevent bombs being thrown into the buildings.

There was great excitement at Bourdin's funeral, and the anarchists, who attempted to follow as meurners, were pelted, hissed and hooted by the growd. The mob shouted " Down with Anarchy !" "Keep to your own country !" "No bombs required here, etc.," and were with difficulty prevented by the police from rushing the hear: c and the la mediate followers. Several arrests were made.

According to latest reports it appears that the Amir has returned to Kabul from Jellalabad. The Commander-in-Chief and suite returned to Calcutta from Darjeeling yesterday morning. It has been decided that if the Abors give no trouble our garrison there will be withdrawn almost immediately.

A telegram received states that there have been no signs of hostility on the part of the Waziris since the recent disturbances. LONDON, March 3rd

Lard Kimberley yesterday received a deputation from the Manchester Cotton Trade. His Lordship said that the Government of India thou hifthat the moment had not yet arrived for making so complete a change in their policy as to reimpose the duties on cotton goods imported into India. The Government, he said, were persuaded that the course they were now pursuing was likely to lead to stability in exchange, and that the real rate could only be tested by the market. Yesterday's sales of Council Drafts, bis lordship added, were therefore very satisfactory as showing a return to a more normal situation.

The Times commenting on Lord Kim berley's reply to the Manchester Cotton Trade deputation concludes that the import duty on cotton goods coming into India is not to be reimposed owing to the pressure brought to bear by Lancashire Members of the House of Commons. The Times says that is impossible to contend that the reimposition of the duly would be an infringement of free trade principles.

There were two executions of natives last. Thursday outside the city near the North gate. One was for murder. The crime of the other sufferer we could not learn, but it appears that he was a runaway prisoner just re-arrested. On Friday last a general storekeeper residing over the long bridge came over to Nantal to get Lord and Lidy Wenlock and suite have left his goods passed through the Customs. At this juncture we hear that the authorities have opened a large factory and invited skilled hands to work in it. They have also offered to buy all the old stocks of made cloth at a reasonable price.

A subterranean grave, probably of great antiquity, was discovered by some masons a body of natives, who lought for two hours. The few days sgo at a place called Siu-tai, off the natives were driven into the interior, and only long bridge, The men were excavating at some depth and care upon it. They found a pair of brass vases and a pair of brass candlesticks, a sppointed to the post. It is worth $12,000 pair of silver bancles and some womens silver hair ornaments. It is said they also came upon a door which they feared to open. A competitor in last year's second-degree examinations, named Song Ul-Ngee, applied for his allowance and a parsage to Peking and he was granted both, but remained here, This year he applied again for the allowances which immediately and at par, but stipulates that the H, E, the Previncial Treasurer declined to give him, printing out that they had already been burned down, but no lives were lost. Their Excellencies the Tartar General and the Provincial Judge will, according to present arrangements, start for Peking to be in time to present their respects to H. I. M. the Downger Empress on the anniversary of her birthday. It is said that H. E. the Tartar General will not return here owing to his having a new appointment elsewhere. The joint proprietor of a native bank that falled some time ago for $12,000 presented himse'f before the authorities last week and offered to pay $6 000 on account of his half share of the bank's deficiencies. He stated that his partner had run away with the other $6,000 and gave his name as Chong Taw-king, but could give no information as to where he could be found. We hear that some up-country traders residing at Chul-kow, having come to the conclusion that much time was lost by sending the goods up and down river in the ordinary cargo-boats propelled by pars, applied to the authorities for permission to make u e of steam launches. This was not granted the n, but we understand that they have started, instead, paddle wheel boats to be worked by manual labour. A dealer in Chinese tobacco carrying on business under the title of Tal-Tang, whose premises were over the long bridge, has lately closed them on account of duliness of trade. We learn that H. E. the Viceroy and other literary mandarins will visit the Seng Ing Taing temple on Thursday next to worship, when cows, goats, pigs, etc., will be offered as an offering to the Joss, Seng-ing. The function, wa understand, will be unusually grand. Several old-fashioned instruments of music, long in disuse, will be played on the occasion. The Joss, Seng-ing, presides over literature and is the reputed inventor of the characters used in Chinese writing. - Echo:
